

Kevin Smith
Vice President & Chief Counsel, Labor
Time Warner Cable, Inc.

Kevin Smith is Vice President & Chief Counsel, Labor for Time Warner Cable Inc. Kevin and his staff are responsible for advising the Company on all labor, employment and benefits compliance issues as well as the Company's labor relations.

Prior to joining Time Warner Cable in 2000, Kevin was Employment Counsel for the Company's former parent Time Warner Inc. and prior to that was a regional trial attorney with the National Labor Relations Board in New York, NY.

Time Warner Cable provides video, high-speed Internet, telephone and related services to 14.7 million customers throughout the U.S. and is the second largest cable provider in the country. Time Warner Cable employs more than 46,000 people in 28 states.