CTHRA Names Expert Panelists and News Correspondent Andrea Mitchell as Moderator of Session at The Cable Show

Panel will assess the Affordable Care Act's impact on industry employers

NAPERVILLE, ILL., May 28, 2013—Cable Show attendees can gain insight into how the Affordable Care Act will affect employees, business practices and the bottom line by attending a session titled Impact Assessment: The Affordable Care Act hosted by the Cable and Telecommunications Human Resources Association (CTHRA).

Andrea Mitchell (pictured at left), NBC News' chief foreign affairs correspondent and host of "Andrea Mitchell Reports" will moderate the discussion featuring Matthew Eurey, vice president of benefits for Time Warner Cable; E.J. Holland, Jr., assistant secretary for administration at the U.S. Department of Health & Human Services; Karen Salinaro, FSA, account director for Towers Watson, and Jeffrey E. Shapiro, vice president of enterprise benefits for The Walt Disney Company.

"Industry professionals from all disciplines will find this session valuable, as the Affordable Care Act has far-reaching implications on employees and employers," shared Pamela Williams, CAE, CTHRA's executive director. The panel of experts will share insight on the overall business implications, budgeting, planning practices and compliance management.

CTHRA's session will take place at 3:30 p.m. on Monday, June 10, 2013 in room 206 at the Walter E. Washington Convention Center in Washington, D.C. It will be immediately followed by a networking reception from 4:30 p.m. to 5:30 p.m. Participation in both the session and reception are open to all registered Cable Show attendees.

CTHRA will continue its activity at the Cable Show the following day when it partners with the National Cable & Telecommunications Association (NCTA) and the U.S. Chamber of Commerce to host a Hiring Our Heroes job fair for industry veterans and their spouses. Qualified cable operators, programmers, technology and software companies interested in participating should contact cthra@cthra.com for eligibility requirements and registration information. Veterans can sign up to attend the job fair by visiting the Hiring Our Heroes website.
