CTHRA Seeks HR Award Nominations for Aspiring Leader and Team Innovative of the Year

NAPERVILLE, ILL., April 10, 2017 —The Cable and Telecommunications Human Resources Association (CTHRA) is accepting nominations through June 15 for its 2017 Excellence in Human Resources (HR) Awards. Established in 2007, the awards annually recognize outstanding achievement, leadership and innovations that have positively impacted business results among the industry's HR community. Nomination forms are available at www.cthra.com/awards.

The award recipients receive industry-wide recognition including a luncheon held in their honor at CTHRA's Annual Symposium on October 26, 2017 in Philadelphia and feature articles in Cablefax, the official media partner for the Excellence in HR Awards, and HR Pulse, CTHRA's member newsletter.

Team Innovator of the Year

This award recognizes a company or HR team within a company that demonstrated innovative, creative problem solving that positively impacted company culture or business results such as increased revenue, improved operating efficiencies and reduced expenses. Nominations are open to all CTHRA member companies. Past recipients of this award are:
