Scripps' Cheryl Middleton Jones Joins CTHRA's Board of Directors

NAPERVILLE, ILL., January 14, 2016 — Today, the Cable and Telecommunications Human Resources Association (CTHRA) announced the appointment of Cheryl Middleton Jones to its board of directors. Middleton Jones is senior vice president of international human resources (HR) for Scripps Networks Interactive where she is responsible for the HR leadership across the company's United Kingdom/EMEA, Brazil and Latin America and Asia Pacific regions. She also oversees several corporate functional groups and the global standardization of HR processes and systems.

Previously, Jones served as vice president of HR for the Asia Pacific region of Scripps Networks Interactive and was based in Singapore. In that role, she managed 70 employees across three countries and was responsible for the start-up division's compensation, benefits, payroll management, facilities and talent acquisition.

Before joining Scripps Networks Interactive in 2011, Middleton Jones was a Six Sigma Black Belt professional at ING in Atlanta where she led cross-functional and multi-site projects. Jones has a master's degree in business administration from the University of Michigan.

"On behalf of the association, I welcome Cheryl to CTHRA's board of directors and look forward to the global perspective she will bring to our leadership," said Pamela Williams, CAE, CTHRA's executive director. CTHRA will hold its first-quarter board meeting on March 2 in San Diego. For more information about CTHRA, please visit www.cthra.com.
